

ERSTE GREEN INVEST

Investing with a sustainable impact

This is a marketing communication. Please note that investing in securities also involves risks besides the opportunities described.

ERSTE GREEN INVEST

ERSTE GREEN INVEST invests worldwide in companies whose products and services have a positive impact on the environment. Additionally, its portfolio also includes companies that undergo a profound transformation towards sustainable management as well as companies offering solutions to adapt to the effects of climate change. Your investment thereby contributes to sustainable development. Please note that investments in investment funds entail both opportunities and risks.

The companies whose stocks were held in ERSTE GREEN INVEST as at the reporting date contribute to protecting the environment on an annual basis as illustrated by the examples below.*

201.8 million people were supplied with clean drinking water (source: total supply capacity of the water supply companies held in the fund).

5.3 million tonnes of CO₂ emissions were saved as a result of rail transport (source: Climate Protection Report, Environment Agency Austria, 2024).

23 million households were supplied with renewable energy in 2024 by the companies held in ERSTE GREEN INVEST. This corresponds to roughly 51.6 million tonnes of CO₂ saved (source: power consumption per household and year in Austria: 5.37 MWh (Statistics Austria 2021/2022)).

31.9 million tonnes of waste were saved by recycling. This corresponds to 26.11 times the amount of waste generated by the City of Vienna in 2023 (source: annual Report 2023 of Municipal Department MA 48).

719.25 million tonnes of CO₂ were saved as a result of newly installed renewable energy capacity in 2024 (source: calculated over the entire lifetime of the facilities). This corresponds to 16 times the amount of CO₂-equivalent greenhouse gases emitted in Austria (source: Climate Protection Report, Environment Agency Austria, 2024).

100% share of renewable energies in the electricity generated by the energy producers held in the fund. This is three times higher than the share of renewable energies in the global energy mix, which mostly consists of fossil fuels and nuclear energy (source: eia, U.S. Energy Information Administration, 2021).

* These figures provide a snapshot of a specific point in time and may change over time. The indicators shown here measure the overall impact generated by the companies held in the fund as at the reporting date. They do not represent the share of ERSTE GREEN INVEST but the overall impact generated by these companies.

Environmentally sustainable investments within the meaning of the EU Taxonomy Regulation as of 31/05/2025: 33.03%

This figure only includes climate-related investments of the fund, as no data of sufficient quality is available yet on the other topics covered by the Regulation, such as water or waste.

These figures provide a snapshot of a specific point in time and may change over time. Please note that investments in investment funds entail both opportunities and risks. Updated in 2025, data of 2023-2025, portfolio as of 30/04/2025.

Sustainable Development Goals and ERSTE GREEN INVEST:

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations are at the centre of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, to which all UN Member States subscribed in 2015. The 17 SDGs cover social, economic and environmental issues, focusing on the fight against poverty, education and health as well as marine and forest conservation and joint efforts to combat climate change.

The following chart shows the investments of the fund in alignment with the SDGs and the associated targets. For example, investments in renewable energies were allocated to SDG 7 “Affordable and clean energy”. The figures in the chart refer to the proportion of the fund’s total investment assets (source: Erste Asset Management supports the UN SDGs, data as of Q4 2025, data provided by ESG Plus GmbH, Erste AM, business data).

Please note that investments in investment funds entail both opportunities and risks.

Our analyses and conclusions are general in nature and do not take into account the individual characteristics of our investors in terms of earnings, taxation, experience and knowledge, investment objective, financial position, capacity for loss, and risk tolerance. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of the future performance of a fund.

Please note: Investments in securities entail risks in addition to the opportunities presented here. The value of units and their earnings can rise and fall. Changes in exchange rates can also have a positive or negative effect on the value of an investment. For this reason, you may receive less than your originally invested amount when you redeem your units. Persons who are interested in purchasing units in investment funds are advised to read the current fund prospectus(es) and the Information for Investors pursuant to § 21 AIFMG, especially the risk notices they contain, before making an investment decision. If the fund currency is different than the investor's home currency, changes in the relevant exchange rate can positively or negatively influence the value of the investment and the amount of the costs associated with the fund in the home currency.
