

ERSTE  | Time Bank
Group

Food Donations with Meaning

Supporting people.
Saving food.

Food donations are an easy and effective way to support people experiencing challenging circumstances.

At the same time, they help reduce food waste and encourage the responsible use of resources.

As it does every year, the Time Bank provides this overview to support partner organizations that receive and distribute food donations.

Donation Points for Samariterbund, Caritas, Integrationshaus, and neunerhaus

Arbeiter-Samariter-Bund Austria

Food Donations for Social Markets

By donating food, you help support people on low incomes while also reducing food waste.

Fresh fruit and vegetables are especially welcome, as well as unopened, still-consumable food products in their original packaging

Caritas Austria

Food Donation Collection Points and Opening Hours Across Austria

Caritas supports people who can no longer afford everyday groceries. Foods that are especially needed include non-perishable items such as rice, pasta, cooking oil, sugar, canned goods, and long-life dairy products.

Collection points for food donations are available in all Austrian federal states, where donations are accepted during the respective opening hours.

Harvest Time: Donate Surplus Produce with Purpose

Caritas collects edible fruit, vegetables, and herbs from private gardens. These donations are processed and used to support social projects.

A meaningful contribution to food rescue, sustainability, and social engagement.

Integrationshaus

Food Donations

Non-perishable food items in their original, unopened packaging are continuously needed to support refugees and families in need.

Current information on urgently needed donations and available donation drop-off options can be found on the website.

neunerhaus

Food Donations

Non-perishable food items such as rice, pasta, canned goods, coffee, and protein drinks are especially needed.

For the latest information on donation opportunities and accepted items, please visit the neunerhaus website.

SAVE FOOD. SUPPORT PEOPLE.

Food donations are a simple way to make a positive impact. By sharing non-perishable foods or surplus harvests, you help people in need while reducing food waste and promoting the responsible use of resources.

Donation Points for Obdach Vienna, Soogut, SoMa, and MUT

Obdach Vienna

Food Donations

Non-perishable food items are needed at various FSW Obdach facilities to support people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

With your donation, you help people facing challenging circumstances and contribute to ensuring they have access to essential daily supplies.

Soogut – Social Markets

Market Overview

Find all Soogut Social Market locations across Lower Austria, Burgenland, and Tyrol at a glance.

Food Donations

Soogut Social Markets welcome food donations such as surplus production items, fresh fruit and vegetables, products with damaged packaging, and goods with a short remaining shelf life.

SoMa Social Market Carinthia

Food Donations

The SoMa Social Market Carinthia supports people on low incomes and welcomes food donations.

By donating, you help save edible food from going to waste while supporting people facing challenging life circumstances.

MUT Association

Food Assistance: Together Against Food Waste

The MUT Association rescues edible food and distributes it free of charge to people facing emergencies and financial hardship.

Through its food assistance program, MUT helps reduce food waste while supporting people affected by poverty.

Make Twice the Difference

By donating food, you support people who need it most and help prevent valuable food from going to waste.

Donation Points for START-UP, St. Elisabeth Foundation, Die Tafel, Ute Bock, and VinziRast

Die Tafel Austria

Social Service Organizations

Die Tafel Austria rescues perfectly good food and distributes it through social service organizations across Austria to people affected by poverty.

On the website, you can find information about donation opportunities as well as an overview of partner organizations and social service providers.

START-UP Association

Foodpoint Social Markets: Food and Essential Goods Donations

Foodpoint Social Markets (Vienna, Lower Austria, Burgenland & Styria). Donations of fresh fruit and vegetables help support customers of the Foodpoint Social Markets and benefit people on low incomes.

Opening Hours and Contact Information

Foodpoint Social Markets give edible food a second chance while supporting people with limited financial means. Helping to save food instead of wasting it.

St. Elisabeth Foundation

Food Donations

The foundation welcomes donations of non-perishable food items in their original, unopened packaging, as well as food vouchers.

These donations support pregnant women, mothers, and families facing difficult circumstances.

Ute Bock Association

Food Donations

The Ute Bock Association welcomes donations of non-perishable food items and canned goods, such as rice, pasta, flour, sugar, salt, cooking oil, strained tomatoes, canned vegetables, jam, and breakfast products.

With your donation, you support refugees and displaced people in Vienna.

VinziRast

Food Donations for the VinziRast Emergency Shelter

The VinziRast emergency shelter welcomes donations of non-perishable food items such as coffee, long-life milk, rice, cooking oil, sugar, spices, and canned goods.

Please contact VinziRast before dropping off any donations.

HELPING HAS MANY FORMS

Whether it's non-perishable food, fresh fruit and vegetables, surplus harvests, or essential goods, every donation provides practical support for people facing difficult circumstances and helps prevent valuable resources from going to waste.

Donation Points for VinziWerke & Volkshilfe Vienna

VinziWerke Austria

Food Donations for VinziWerke

VinziWerke's facilities, especially its emergency shelters, regularly rely on donations of non-perishable food items to support people in need.

Items that are particularly needed include flour, long-life milk, pasta, coffee, sugar, tea, salt, rice, and cooking oil.

For information on how to donate and for the contact details of VinziHaus, please visit the website.

VinziHaus: Donations & Contact

Volkshilfe Vienna

Food Donations

Volkshilfe Vienna welcomes donations of non-perishable food items to support people experiencing financial hardship and challenging life circumstances.

With your donation, you help ensure that individuals and families affected by poverty have access to essential everyday groceries and support when they need it most.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Social Organizations Distributing Food Donations \(City of Vienna\)

Food Sharing Tips and Opportunities \(City of Vienna\)

Time Bank